HE'S A GOOD INDIAN NOW

Wa-Ba-Chuse Wanted a Fight and He Got His Pill of It.

MR. GLORE PUT A BALL IN HIM

And His Spirit Went Instantly to the Happy Hunting Grounds, Where He Can Be Bad if He Wants To.

GREAT FALLS, June 7.—A special from Havre says: An Indian named Wa-Ba-Chuse from the Cree camp was shot and killed Tuesday evening by a Yankton Indian named Charlie Glore, who is a rancher on Milk river. Wa-Ba-Chuse, who was drunk, had a fight with a white man and pounded the white man over the head with a club. The Indian made murderous threats and went away in a rage.

On the way to camp Wa-Ba-Chuse went to Glore's ranch, one mile east of town and, threatening to kill Glore, drove everybody out of the house. Glore ran to a neighbor's house and got a Winchester and returning found the Cree watching for him.

Glore fired and shot Wa-Ba-Chuse through the body, killing him instantly. He then came to Havre and surrendered to the authorities, giving a detailed history of the trouble. At a preliminary examination held to-day Glore was discharged, the justice holding that it was a case of justifiable homicide.

GREAT FALLS GOSSIP.

GREAT FALLS, June 7.—The Caledonian society entertained its friends at Elks' hall to-night with an elaborate programme of a Scottish nature. The attendance was large, and those present spent an enjoyable evening.

The track between Great Falls and Helena is covered with water in several places, but these overflows have occurred at points where the road bed is of solid rock, and as a result but little damage has been done.

The Broadwater group of mines turn out in the neighborhood of 100,000 ounces of silver every month, and work is being pushed as fast as possible on these properties by Manager Clark.

The chamber of commerce held an interesting meeting to-night, and matters of importance to the city and county were the subjects of discussion. The attendance was large, and the secretary now reports a membership of 125 and still growing.

Judge Benton yesterday appointed W. P. Beachley receiver of the Leader Publishing company vice A. C. Botkin, resigned. Mr. Rolfe will be retained as business manager.

James Shields came in from Anaconda last night and left this morning for Belt. The question of paving Central avenue is being discussed by the city council to-night, and the result of the deliberations of the aldermen is looked for with interest by taxpayers and others.

A. Nathan and others yesterday purchased lot 7, block 9, of the Boston & Great Falls Land company for $700.

Parents and others interested in the progress made in the public schools, attended the exercises in large numbers this afternoon, and were entertained by a nicely arranged programme. The little folks did well and were enthusiastically applauded.

The case of Alice Yore vs. John T. Murphy of Helena was in the district court to-day. The amount involved is in the neighborhood of $15,000, and before the case is over some interesting evidence is likely to be brought out.

The board of trade held an important meeting yesterday afternoon and great interest was evinced in the proceedings. Professor Webster, W. D. Dickinson, Matt Dunn, Dr. Crutcher, James Haran, Ira Myers and others reported encouraging results from correspondence firms with the Eastern manufacturing firms who had been invited to establish industrial plants in this city. The board and its members are doing splendid work in holding up to public view the natural resources of the city, county and state, and the opportunities offered capitalists to locate at Great Falls and take advantage of her natural resources.

THAT SUN DANCE.

It Is Causing a Heap of Trouble and Discussion.

GREAT FALLS, June 7.—The official proclamation issued by Governor Rickard prohibiting the sun dance reached Great Falls yesterday afternoon. The document excited general comment among members of the legal profession, many of whom differ in opinion from Attorney General Haskell. The managers of the proposed entertainment have applied to Judge Benton for an injunction restraining certain parties from interfering or preventing said entertainment. The following is a copy of the official document filed yesterday afternoon and served on Sheriff Hamilton and County Attorney Freeman in the district court of Cascade county: "L. Enright, Joseph Lessard, John P. Dyas and Little Bear, chief plaintiffs, vs. Josephus Hamilton as sheriff, James W. Freeman and James W. Freeman as county attorney, John E. Rickard as governor of the state of Montana and Henry J. Haskell as attorney general. On the complaint of the plaintiffs duly verified and upon the affidavits of Joseph Lessard, Little Bear, Young Boy and John P. Dyas, it is ordered that said defendants and each of them and their agents, attorneys, counselors, deputies, under sheriffs, associates, aides and abettors to show cause before me, the undersigned judge of the above entitled court, at the court room in the city of Great Falls, June 8, 1894, at 4 o'clock p. m., why an injunction should not be issued restraining them and their agents from stopping, preventing from taking place or in any way interfering with the running programme and Indian performance and ceremony known as the sun dance, now taking place and to take place and to be performed by the Cree Indians at Great Falls, Cascade county, Montana, on the 15th, 16th and 17th days of June, 1894, as contained in the complaint, affidavits and exhibits hereto attached and made a part hereof and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable in the premises, and it is further ordered that said defendants Josephus Hamilton and Josephus Hamilton as sheriff, James W. Freeman and James W. Freeman as county attorney and each of them and their agents be, in the meantime, restrained, and they, the said defendants and each of them and their agents, are hereby forbidden to suffer, do, perform or commit any of said acts until the further order of the court. Signed, C. H. Benton, judge of the district court, Eighth judicial district, within and for the county of Cascade and state of Montana. Dated this 6th day of June, 1894."

To a STANDARD reporter to-night Manager Lessard said the STANDARD came to the Indian exercises advertised to occur on June 15, 16 and 17 will positively take place, regardless of any proclamation to the contrary. "My attorneys assure me that no man can interfere in the performance of an act wherein no law is violated. These Indians are not within the jurisdiction of the executive of this state as long as no law is violated. The whole thing has been misrepresented in the grossest manner by certain parties who are actuated by personal motives and malice. How can the police or the governor or the attorney general interfere in the doing of a lawful act? And as long as there is nothing unlawful it cannot be otherwise than lawful. We have intended all along to eliminate any and all features of cruelty, indecency and inhumanity and to make the exercise only weird, unusual and interesting as showing the custom and religious belief of the North American Indian.

"Yes, you can say the injunction has been issued and the case fought to a finish, and the exercises will occur at the time and place arranged for the same."

Rev. R. McCollan Ramsay, who visited the Cree Indian camp a few days since and conducted religious services, defines his position on the question of the sun dance in the following words:

"As I am being quoted on the other side of the question of the sun dance, permit me to express my views plainly. I highly approve of the governor's proclamation forbidding it and have not changed my views since I signed my name to the letter to the governor. As to my visit to the Indian camp, it was not to learn from the Indians anything about the sun dance, but to tell them of our Savior's life and redemption work. Surely no minister of the gospel of Christ can ask the Indian to turn from idolatry and the worship of God by any image of anything in the heaven or earth and to encourage sun worship. Moreover, I hardly think it in accordance with the golden rule for us to gain profit and pleasure from the Indian during his visit among us, and then kick the fiddler from our door after he has played his tune.

"As to what is best for the prosperity of the town, I am a poor judge; that may be left to the business men of the town. I settle all these questions by the rule that what is right is best, though it bring present distress, and I cannot see that the sun dance is right in the sight of God. My friends in these matters, however, are placing my opinions too high. Most certainly I am a poor source of authority for any of the leaders on either side of the question, much less one who could give counsel to the governor. My brethren in the ministry of Great Falls may be taken as much better guides in these matters than a lad fresh from his books.

"Nor is it any complaint to me to say that I examined the question before I answered it. One need not see murder to forbid killing, one need not see adultery to forbid lust, one need not see the sun dance to forbid idolatry. If we wish to see what is black in the world let us accustom ourselves to what is white. As the Indian loves to exhibit his worship to us may we learn a lesson of taking more pride and pleasure in our own."

What a Plieie I Will I.

GREAT FALLS, June 7.—The committees to arrange for the entertainment of the Montana Press association met at the Ulm house last evening. The different committees made favorable reports in every instance, and the proposed excursions, banquet and the like, were discussed at length and satisfactorily arranged for. The following gentlemen compose the finance committee, and met with splendid success today in raising a healthy fund to entertain the visitors: Matt Dunn, A. M. Scott, C. M. Webster, G. H. Goodrich, T. W. Brosnan, J. A. Gockestetter, O. S. Worden, E. W. King and James Haven.

Their Just Deserts.

GREAT FALLS, June 7.—Edward Riley was arrested last evening for stealing scrap iron from the Great Northern railroad and selling it to the smelter. The amount involved aggregated in the neighborhood of $40. Riley was tried this morning and fined $50 and given 60 days in jail. Alois Stocker was gathered in last night on the charge of beating his wife. This morning Judge Hawkins gave him a roast, a 60-day sentence and a fine of $50.

PICNIC FOR THE TOUGHS.

The Cherokee Indians Being Robbed of Their Heritage.

TAHEQUAH, I. T., June 6.—The big Cherokee payment now in progress at this place attracts people from all parts of the country. Over $600,000 of funds have been paid out and now the money is becoming almost as common as tradesmen's doggers. Gambling houses, wheels of fortune and other devices of the sort are running wide open. Reports of robberies of the Indians leaving for home are coming in from every direction. The next place of payment will be Vinita.

The Copper Market.

From the Engineering and Mining Journal.

Although in our last issue we could not well do otherwise than to indicate lower values as likely to rule ere long, in spite of the fact that we were then able to report a better demand for manufactured articles and a consequent better demand for raw materials, we did not anticipate that before the time of our next issue the expected lower prices should have materialized. Rumors to the effect that a large sale of Lake copper was about to be made to the manufacturers, deliveries to be spread over several months, have been current for several days, and, at the time of writing it is said that such a sale has been made at 9 cents, the price that has been talked of in connection with the rumors. As the manufacturers have been confident that they would be able to buy at such a price, business has naturally been restricted, everybody awaiting the outcome of the negotiations. Statistics for the second half of the month, as cabled from abroad, shows an increase in supplies of 1,200 tons.

Electrolytic copper we have to quote at 9c, and Arizona pig copper at 8 1/2 cts, market for all being more or less nominal.

Abroad, there has been a relapse to former conditions of dullness and low prices, G. M. B's having now declined to a lower point than was reached a short time ago, and which was the lowest on record. The close is at 438 1/2 cts. 6d. for spot and 439 for three months, while the figures of a week ago were 439 1/2 cts. for spot and 439 1/2 cts. for three months. We quote English tough, 41 1/2 cts. 6d. Best selected, 42 1/2 cts. 6d.; Strong sheets, 43 1/2 cts. 6d.; India sheets, 44 1/2 cts. 6d.; Yellow metal, 45 1/2 cts. 6d.

Recent sales of furnace material in England are noted by James Lewis & Son's latest circular as follows: 230 tons Mexican ore, 25 per cent., at 7s. 3d. per unit; 1,350 tons Copiapo ore, 15 per cent., at 7s. per unit; 50 tons Chilean carbonate ore, 25 per cent., at 7s. 3d. per unit; 200 tons Portuguese sulphur ore, 5 per cent., at 7s. per unit; 30 tons Cuerva precipitate, 50 per cent., at 7s. 3d. per unit. A sale is reported of 2,000 tons American matte, 70 per cent., for delivery over the year, at 7s. 10 1/2 d. per unit, but this requires confirmation.

Our special correspondents from Cartagena, Spain, write: A few good finds of copper ore have been made during the past few months in the Sierra. One mine has sold several large parcels of ore testing as high as 28 per cent. copper and 20 ounces silver per ton.
